NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL

Occupies the Greater Part of the Time in the House, While the Senate Considers the Montana Election Case and Passes the Anti-Trust Bill—Other Happenings at the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The house devoted a greater part of the day to the discussion of the naval appropriation bill. Among the bills passed in the morning hour were the following: Providing that persons settling on the second indemnity plat of the Northern Pacific railway grant between August, 1887, and January, 1889, may transfer in their entries from that tract to other government lands subject to entry; to cause certain land at the headwaters of the Mississippi, St. Croix, Chippewa and Wisconsin rivers set apart for reservoir purposes to be restored to the public domain; authorizing the entry of public lands by incorporated cities and towns for cemetery and park purposes; granting rights of way through various Indian reservations in Wisconsin to the Duluth and Winnipeg Railway company and granting right of way through the Colville Indian reservation to the Spokane Falls and Northern Railway company.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, from the committee on naval affairs, called up bill to prevent the enlistment of aliens in the naval service of the United States.
The bill further provides that aliens now in the service shall not be permitted to re-enlist at the expiration of their present term. It was amended by the addition of clauses providing that the law shall go into effect July 1, 1891, providing that enlistment and service in the navy for five years shall be construed to be residence in the United States for the purpose of securing citizenship, and permitting the enlistment of aliens in cases of emergency on foreign stations. The bill was then passed.

Mr. Adams, of Illinois, called up the motion to reconsider the vote by which the house defeated the bill making appropriation to supply the deficiency caused by the Silcott defalcation. In support of the motion, Mr. Payson reviewed the decision on the Crain case in the court of claims. The secretary of the treasury had authorized him to say that his department would not appeal from the decision.

A motion of Mr. Holman to table the motion of Mr. Adams was lost, and the vote was reconsidered and the bill passed.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the naval appropriation bill.

Speaking to the bill Mr. Boutelle congratulated the country that, under the policy adopted in building up the navy had been demonstrated the fact that we were able to produce everything that entered the construction of large ships.

Mr. Sayers said that the report of the committee furnished no information respecting the increase of the navy and proceeded to criticize the bill, devoting his attention mainly to the provision for the large battleships.

Mr. Holman thought the present naval force of the United States amply sufficient.

Mr. Peters, of Kansas, thought the day for battleships on the ocean had passed. The strongest mandate was the diplomatic mandate.

Mr. Dolliver, of Iowa, said that the people of the west took a pride in the increase of the American navy.

Mr. McAdoo, of New Jersey, said the proposed battleships would be the picket line of our defense. The navy that defended the American coast defended the commerce and miner of the west.

Mr. Lodge said that the quickest and best coast defence was a navy consisting of a few ships of the best and most powerful types.

The bill was then taken up by sections, but without completing the committee rose, and at 5:25, the house adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The senate considered the Montana election case further but without action.

The anti-trust bill was taken up and after a brief discussion passed.

House bill to admit free of duty articles intended for the St. Louis exposition in September and October, 1890, that may be imported from the republic of Mexico was reported favorably from the finance committee and passed with amendments adding the words, "And other American republics and the Dominion of Canada."

Mr. Edmunds introduced a bill directing the delivery of duplicate law books to Howard university. It was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Vest offered a resolution which was agreed to, calling on the president for a copy of the report made to him by the secretary of state, and copies of other correspondence in relation to the propriety of distributing the funds received from the Mexican government on account of the Weil and La Abra awards.

The senate then resumed consideration of the Montana contested election case, and Mr. Spooner continued his argument in favor of the right of the Republican claimants.

Mr. Pugh argued in favor of seating the Democrat claimants. After speaking a short time Mr. George interrupted him to calling attention to the fact that there were but two seats occupied on the Republican side of the chamber, and that there was less than a quorum present.

A motion directing the sergeant-at-arms to request the attendance of absent senators was agreed to.

A motion to adjourn was defeated.
Mr. Pugh said he did not feel well enough to continue his argument, so it was agreed that the Montana case be laid aside for the day, and the anti-trust bill was taken up.

Mr. Sherman said that while the bill was not all that he wanted, he believed that it was the best that could be got and he would therefore vote for it as it stood.

Mr. Vest said that he was satisfied that the public interest required the passage of the bill as it stood, and he was, therefore, prepared to sacrifice his private judgment as to one of the sections in order to facilitate the immediate passage of the bill.

Mr. Reagan offered an amendment—extending jurisdiction on the matter to state courts of competent jurisdiction; and Messrs. Vest and Hoar opposed the amendment on the ground that it was not competent for congress to confer jurisdiction on state courts.

Mr. George, while favoring the bill, expressed his fear that its effects would be very disappointing. He favored Mr.
Reagan's amendment. He proposed another amendment that it shall be lawful for any number of persons complaining of such injury committed by the same defendant against each of them, to join as plaintiffs, and for the court or jury to find the amount of damages.

Messrs. Edmunds and Morgan argued against these amendments, and they were both rejected. The bill was then passed—yeas 52, nays 1 (Mr. Blodgett).
The bill passed is exactly as it came from the committee.

The senate then, at 5:45 p. m., adjourned.

Prisoners Pardoned by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—President Harrison yesterday granted pardons to Thomas Primrose, convicted in Michigan for counterfeiting and sentenced Sept. 17, 1888, to five years' imprisonment, and to Frederick Bellevue, of Maine, for violation of internal revenue, to pay $50 and costs.

The sentence of Charles Bickel, of Kansas, for counterfeiting and sentenced to three years and $1,000 fine, is commuted to two years' imprisonment; sentence of Vincent R. Griffin, of Virginia, for keeping illicit distillery and sentenced to one month imprisonment in Henry county jail, and a fine of $100, is commuted as far as the imprisonment goes.

Pardons are denied in the cases of Charles Corven, of Virginia, for retailing liquor without license and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and one month's imprisonment, and in case of Thomas F.
Mahon, of Iowa, for violating postal laws and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

Checking Chinese Emigration.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The secretary of the treasury was directed that additional force be sent the collector at Santiago, Cal., to assist him in preventing Chinese from coming at that point.
The collector had already arrested 130 Chinese while attempting to cross the border of Mexico into this country. These Chinese came over with seventy-four other Chinamen from Peking, were transferred in the bay at San Francisco and landed at a point in Lower California, which is under Mexican jurisdiction. Those Chinamen worked their way up and are now, under cover of night, trying to enter the United States.

Assistant Secretary Tichenor says that the Chinese are by every pretext endeavoring to get into this country from British America on the north and from Mexico on the south, and under cover of law as merchants, etc., and that the utmost exertion on the part of the government can hardly prevent some of them from smuggling themselves into this country.

Death of an Old Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—William W.
Warden, formerly Washington correspondent of The Cincinnati Enquirer, and at one time private secretary to President Andrew Johnson, died yesterday morning, of paralysis, after a lingering illness. Mr. Warden has been practicing law in the District of Columbia in recent years.

AN INSANE MAN'S CRIME.

He Instantly Kills a Young Girl and Then Shoots Himself.

MEDFORD, Wis., April 9.—A man named Willard Williams, nicknamed "Crazy Kelly," went to the house of Judge Clinton Textor, of this city, yesterday, and addressing Miss Maggie Pritchard, a niece of Mrs. Textor, said:
"Are you Maggie Pritchard?" She said:
"Yes;" and then he said: "You must die;" and drawing a revolver fired at her, killing her instantly.

He then shot himself. He is alive, but will probably die. The feeling against Williams is so great that it is safe to say he would not have lived an hour had he not shot himself. Miss Pritchard was one of the leading young society belles of this village and a favorite. The cause of the tragedy is not known except that it be due to insanity.

Young Lady Killed by Lightning.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 9.—Yesterday evening a terrific thunder storm swept over the city. Several buildings were struck, but not much damaged.
Miss Ida Miller, aged 20, while standing in the doorway of her father's house, on South Calhoun, was struck by lightning and killed instantly. Her mother, with her, was stunned. A traveling man, name unknown, who had just entered the store, was struck and seriously injured.

Mormon Conference at Loami.

LOAMI, Iowa, April 9.—The annual general conference of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints assembled in this city Monday.
Over 200 disciples are in attendance.
The first day was spent in preaching and prayer. President Joseph Smith, son of the founder of the Mormon faith, preached. The secretary's report showed over 2,000 accessions to the church in the last year.

Another Cyclone.

This One Visits the Northern Part of Ohio.

GREAT DAMAGE AT NORWALK.

Thirty Young Women Buried in the Ruins of an Umbrella Factory—One Dead and Others Fatally Injured.
Michigan Visited By a Tornado—The Damage Done at Prophetstown, Ill.

CLEVELAND, O., April 9.—A cyclone struck Norwalk, O., about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The storm came from the northwest and swept a track about half a mile wide from the eastern limits of the city quite a long distance in the country. The umbrella factory of Sprague & French, was in the path of the cyclone. A part of the building, in which about thirty young women were employed, was crushed like an egg shell.

Many of the girls escaped, but others were caught in the falling building.

Dora Palmer, aged 10, received fatal injuries and died in a short time. Her skull was crushed.

Nellie Harding was seriously injured about the head and upper part of the body.

Miss Bush had her collar bone broken and was otherwise injured.

Several other girls whose names can not be learned received injuries.

A dozen barns were blown down and other small buildings were wrecked.
Trees were uprooted and fences torn down in all directions. The force of the wind was unprecedented in this section.

At 7 o'clock yesterday evening another terrific storm visited the city, the wind blowing and hailstones as large as hickory nuts falling, smashing windows and demolishing green houses.

A dispatch from Collins, O., a few miles from Norwalk, says: A very heavy and serious cyclone passed through this place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Between fifteen and twenty buildings, mostly dwellings, were completely wrecked and several people injured. Mr. Housenoff and daughter were seriously hurt. There is terrible excitement throughout the community.

ONE IN MICHIGAN.

Considerable Damage Done by Storms in Eaton and Calhoun Counties.

CHARLOTTE, Mich., April 9.—A cyclone passed over the northern part of the city about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, doing damage amounting to several thousand dollars. The roof was torn off the main building of the Richardson Mill company; Mayor Packard's barn was torn to atoms; a wing of Mr. Bar-hat's residence was wrenched from the main building and lifted into an adjoining lot, and completely demolished; the house of Dr. Rosenkrans was dislocated and the Steam Heat Evaporator company's building was also damaged.
Outhouses, smoke stacks and chimneys were generally demolished, and trees and shrubs uprooted.

The roof was blown off Child's barn and much damage was done to Chappel's brick and tile works in Carmel.

In Calhoun County.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., April 9.—A cyclone passed through this city Monday night, leveling buildings, fences and wind mills. The summer cottages at Gouage lake, two miles south, were blown down, but no lives were lost. Loss not yet estimated.

DESTRUCTION AT PROPHETSTOWN.

A Number of Buildings Demolished, But No One Killed.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The reported loss of life at Prophetstown, Ill., is unfounded. A dispatch received by the general superintendent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad from the railroad agent at Prophetstown is as follows:

"A tornado struck Prophetstown about 7 o'clock Monday evening, blowing the depot from its foundation, blowing off half the roof and breaking in the windows. The elevator was blown down and rests on the sidetrack. A string of fourteen cars blew out from the siding on to the main track about three miles from here with brakes set.
Quite a number of buildings were blown down in the village and a number of persons hurt. With the exception of one stock train delayed all others are on time."

Valuable Race Horses at Large.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 9.—Fire started in a row of frame buildings adjoining the Kentucky association grounds, last night, and quickly communicated to the stables of the association, which were full of racers entered for the coming spring meeting. The stable hands heroically saved the horses from the flames, but were compelled to turn them loose, and horses worth fortunes are dashing through the streets or jumping high fences in their wild flight across the country. The fire was got under control at midnight. The loss on the frame buildings and the stables amounts to about $6,000. The loss on the race horses will not be known for several days.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 9.—Burrell Ragsdale, his mother and his younger brother, used a tricycle to go to a neighbor's above Newnan last night. At Powells they were struck by a wild cat construction train. Burrell Ragsdale was so badly injured that he died at midnight. His mother was instantly killed. The boy escaped. Ragsdale was an employe of the railroad.

RITTER'S RECORD.

Under Arrest for the Butchery of His Sister-in-Law.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., April 9.—Mrs.
Anna Ritter, wife of the triple and possibly quadruple murderer, Henry Ritter, died yesterday at the United Charities hospital. She was brought to that institution, night before last, with the death rattle in her throat, a strong smell of chloroform upon her person, and insensible. She remained in this condition till death came as a blessed relief from a life of torture.

The coroner is now investigating the cause of her death, and will hold a post-mortem before concluding his inquisition. Her death is surrounded by a most suspicious mystery. It is suicide, or a case of murderous poisoning. She had been in ill health since the arrest of her husband for the murder of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Weiland, in the early morning of March 10, remaining at her home, where persons in the friendship of her husband could have access to her room, and have ample opportunity to carry out any slow murderous scheme the stolid, bloody-handed husband might devise to remove her out of life, and thus get rid of the strongest and only living witness of his fiendish murder of Mrs. Weiland, or, weary of the awful life of torture she has passed with Ritter, she may have sought surcease of sorrow of her own volition.

The history of Mrs. Ritter's family is one full of violent horrors. She herself lived in constant dread of death from violence at the hands of her husband.
Her brother, William Gerald, died of a broken neck, to which were added many bodily bruises, as if inflicted with a club.

It is now believed, from revelations recently made, that Henry Ritter, his brother-in-law, murdered him to get out of the way a witness who could convict him of grand larceny. Mrs. Gerald, mother of William Gerald, and Mrs.
Ellen Weiland, and Mrs. Henry Ritter died suddenly, and it is now remembered she betrayed symptoms of strychnine poisoning, and a female friend of the old lady does not hesitate to charge that Henry Ritter killed her for the same reason that he slew William Gerald a year latter.

This same fiend, Ritter, chopped the brains out of Mrs. Ellen Weiland with a cleaver because she knew, too, of his crimes and upbraided him for them, and for his cruel treatment of his wife, her sister, and now the wife is dead under circumstances of suspicion. Four members of the Gerald family have gone to deaths of violence in less than three years.

It is a fearful record, and all chargeable to Henry Ritter, who is little better than a living monster. Revelations are daily making that fasten his crime upon him. Yesterday Sheriff Thornton made another search of Ritter's premises. In an old barrel, covered under a pile of rubbish and dirt, the sheriff found the shirt worn by Ritter when he murdered Mrs. Weiland. This shirt is a horrible tell-tale against him, having been perfectly saturated in blood.

When told at the county jail of his wife's death Ritter showed no indications of sorrow. He received the news with stolid indifference, remarking,
"Well, she's better off."

Late yesterday evening several bottles containing liquids were found in the Ritter house, and these are to be examined by experts to ascertain the character of the contents.

THE OUTLOOK IN CHINA.

Chang Chintung's Railroad Project Stopped by an Imperial Order.

NEW YORK, April 9.—A Shanghai correspondent of The Herald writes as follows: The imperial fiat has gone forth blocking the prospects of Chang Chintung's railway from the sacred city to the great emporium on the Yangtze, famous alike for its velvets and its teas, Hankow. There has in fact, been a regular volt face in the capital upon the railway question, which is, after all, the subject upon which we "western barbarians" are most interested in China.

But despite the signal failure of the ex-viceroy of the Kwang provinces to get beyond the mere prospectus stage with his vast project for the construction of a grand trunk line through the metropolitan province to the Yangtze, unless everyone who knows anything about the subject is very much mistaken, within the current year we will see a serious commencement made with railways in China.

It is not, it must be remembered, because the high authorities in the empire are in favor of such a revolution as a widespread system of railways would necessarily bring about, or that their ideas have so far advanced that they wish to see their old modes of traveling by sedan chairs through two foot paths, and picturesque boats through winding creeks and canals, superseded by the snorting steed of the westers.

No, the general spirit of the mandarinate is just what it was a century ago, but in the same way as China has been driven to supplant its ancient fleets of unwieldy junks by ironclads and smart looking gunboats, because the "foreign devils" just half a century ago, showed the pig-tailed race how feeble their old-fashioned modes of warfare were against those of modern Europe, so the ruling class in China are to-day convinced that if the old levianthan among nations does not bestir herself, she will ere long fall to pieces from sheer inability to exist in the altered condition of Asia.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 9.—John Gregory, a miner living a few miles from here, is on his death bed. While delirious yesterday he told the story of a terrible murder committed twenty years ago. A miner by the name of Keating mysteriously disappeared at the time referred to and no trace of him could be found. The story now told by the dying man is that Keating was met on his way home and was murdered and his body thrown into a well on Gregory's lot and the well filled with sand. Gregory implicates a man who still lives near here.
The well was visited and was found to be full of sand. A further investigation will be made.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1890

HURRY up that barrel factory enterprise. There is a nice demand right here at home to be supplied by such an establishment.

THE increase in the assessed value of property made by the State Board of Equalization will amount to about $9,000 in taxes.

By the way, what has become of the proposed new city charter? Up to last Saturday it had not made its appearance in the Legislature.

THE Prohibitionists were downed at Georgetown, Ohio, Monday. The liquor people elected the Council and Mayor, and the anti-saloon ordinance is to be repealed.

DEMOCRATIC gains and Democratic victories were marked features in results of the municipal and township elections in Ohio, Indiana and elsewhere last Monday. Democrats can view the returns with great complacency. There's nothing discouraging for them in the figures.

ABOUT $15,000 or $20,000 worth of barrels are required every year by the distilleries in the West End. In five years the sum taken out of Maysville in this way runs up to about $100,000. A barrel factory will keep this $100,000 here at home, to give employment to our people and help to build up the town.

REPUBLICANS are displaying unseemly haste in rushing through Congress the bills to confer Statehood upon Wyoming and Idaho, but these new States will not save the party. They may help the Republicans to retain control of the Senate a few years longer, but only for few years the way things are now drifting.

In the past ten years the sum of $150,000 or $200,000 has been paid out for barrels used at the distilleries in the West End. And all this sum has gone away from home to help build up other towns. The Commercial Club should "boom" that barrel factory enterprise, and then, as soon as it is established, other industries can be discussed.

FIVE hundred weavers employed in a mill at Philadelphia struck a few days ago because the wages they were asked to accept "were not sufficient to keep body and soul together," as they expressed it in one of their resolutions. This we learn from the Philadelphia Enquirer, a Republican paper. If these five hundred weavers get any benefit from the high tariff, where does it come in?

THE McKinley Tariff Bill places diamonds on the free list. This is a great blessing to the laboring man. It will prove a source of much comfort to him to know that he does not have to pay a duty on his diamond stud and ring and his wife's diamond earrings and bracelets. With such precious gems on the free list, what does he care how much duty is placed on his clothes, boots and shoes and other necessities?

THE twine and cordage manufacturers are also up in arms against the McKinley Tariff bill. Here is an interview with Mr. Fittler, a Republican candidate for President two years ago. It was published last week in the Philadelphia Enquirer, a Republican paper. Mr. Fittler being a member of the firm of Edwin H. Fittler & Co., of that city:

"Our position on this tariff question so far as it affects hemp does not seem to be understood," said Mayor Fittler. "We have always wanted free raw material, and we do not think Kentucky's pony hemp industry should be so enormously protected."

"Our house employs about 600 hands of all classes, and everybody makes good wages. If the duty is not taken off the raw material that we use it will be impossible for us to compete with the cheaper labor of England, Ireland and Germany and pay the duty. We will be forced out of the business or out of the country. I think that it is pretty generally resolved among the cordage manufacturers of this country that if the McKinley bill becomes a law we will remove our machinery somewhere else. One-half of our factory would go to Mexico and the other half to Canada or England."

"This tariff question is a serious one, for the twine and cordage manufacturers of the United States have an annual output of over $50,000,000 worth of manufactured goods. If the tariff bill in its present shape becomes a law the industry will be practically wiped out, and 15,000 thousand people will be thrown out of employment."

Republicans prated a good deal in the last campaign that the Mills bill would destroy the industries of this country. How does the above strike you, coming from a Republican? The Mills bill put hemp on the free list. It would have given the manufacturers their raw material free of duty, and taking their own testimony that is what they needed.

Forty new bills were introduced in the House at Frankfort yesterday.

A bill to forbid Assessors to be paid for assessments made by Supervisors is pending.

An act to prescribe the liability of railroads for stock killed was introduced in the House yesterday.

The Senate yesterday passed the House bill to enable the town council of Augusta to issue bonds in aid of manufactures.

Representative Cooper has introduced a bill to reduce the rate of taxation from 47 to 45 cents. A half loaf is better than nothing.

The Frazee bill to provide for the enforcement of judgments against railway companies will be reported favorably and passed by the House, probably this week. It is not known what disposition the Senate will make of it.

Representative Frazee thinks it better to let the State taxes remain what they are now than to reduce them and be confronted with a deficit in a year or two. He voted to sustain the Governor's veto of the tax reduction bill.

One of the new bills is to regulate the advertising of judicial sales of property. It is a copy of the Kellar bill, which the House recently tabled without debate. It contains only slight changes, one being to extend the limit of sales to be advertised to all cases where the judgment is for $300 or more.

An important bill now pending is the one to establish the Kentucky Reform School. The bill directs the Governor to appoint three commissioners for two, four and six years, from May 1, 1890. He is authorized to receive by donation or to purchase for the State from 80 to 320 acres of land. The commissioners are empowered to erect suitable buildings and $100,000 is appropriated for the purpose. Provision is made for the control of the institution, which shall receive all boys between six and sixteen years of age who are decreed by proper courts to be vicious and incorrigible. The commissioners are to be paid $500 a year.

Mr. Clarence Turner, whose death occurred last week, was buried at German town Thursday with the honors of the S. of T., of which he was a faithful member.

The following memorial resolution was adopted at last meeting of Diamond Division, Sons of Temperance:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Allwise and Infinite One in unbounded wisdom to remove from our midst our esteemed brother Clarence Turner; therefore

Be it resolved, That in his death the order of Sons of Temperance has lost one of its most faithful members, and a name has been stricken from the roll that can never be replaced and a deep gloom pervades our division.

And be it further resolved, That as a token of respect to our deceased brother the charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and these resolutions be printed in the Maysville papers and a copy of the same be presented to the parents of the deceased brother.

DENNY VERSUS BRADLEY.

Bad Blood Engendered by the Recent Meeting of the Republican State Committee.

Says the Lexington Leader, the most prominent Republican paper in the State: "It is understood that had Colonel John W. Lewis, a member of the State Central Committee, been present at the recent meeting in Louisville, he would have cast his vote for Judge Denny, that his proxy voted every ballot, amounting to about thirty, against him.

"Mr. J. A. Sparks, the newly elected member from the Ninth District, in place of J. K. Waller, deceased, after repeatedly promising Judge Denny that if it took his vote to elect him that he would vote for him, voted thirty ballots against him.
Mr. Sparks says that he would personally prefer to see Judge Denny elected, but some people of his district had pledged him to Mr. Bradley and he was undertaking to carry out their wishes. It is said that the chief division to which Mr.
Sparks has been recently appointed, was secured through the instrumentality of Judge Denny. It looks hard that Judge Denny should lose Mr. Sparks' vote when he took the place of J. K. Waller, who was Denny's warm friend, and induced him to become a candidate shortly after the death of Colonel Goodloe.

"There was a question raised about the regularity of Mr. Sparks' appointment on the committee, and it was only through the vote of W. G. Dunlap, a friend and brother-in-law of Judge Denny, that he got on the committee. It was Dunlap's honesty, but bad politics, that got Sparks on the committee."

The meeting referred to was to select a member to succeed the late Colonel Goodloe on the National Republican Committee. The meeting closed, however, without making a selection, and the matter was continued until next year.
This was done after thirty-five or thirty-six ballots were taken, the vote being a tie between Colonel Bradley and Judge Denny. In an interview published in the Lexington Transcript, Judge Denny said:

"Of course I was surprised by the results reached at Louisville. I had eight votes pledged to me. The six I obtained all along, and the votes of Jos. A. Sparks and Jno. W. Lewis, Sparks had up to the very time the balloting began promised to vote for me. He wrote me promising his influence, and vote. But when the balloting began he voted for Bradley every time. He said he voted for my opponent because his people were pledged to Mr.
Bradley. Mr. John Lewis also promised to vote for me, if he stood no chance of being elected. But a relative of Mr. Lewis died a few days before the meeting and he sent his vote by proxy. By some mistake, or something else, Mr. Lewis' vote was cast for Mr. Bradley. So you can see if Mr. Lewis had put in his appearance I would have won the race without Mr. Sparks' vote."

Railway World.

H. E. Huntington, Vice-President and General Manager of the Kentucky Central, has appointed Lewis Hood Superintendent of the K. C., with headquarters in Cincinnati.

J. C. Loomis, who recently resigned the position of Superintendent of the Cincinnati Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio, has taken services with the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Road as Superintendent of the Southern Division. His headquarters will be in Louisville.

The Bellaire Democrat says the indications point more favorably to the completion of the Ohio Valley Railroad than at any time heretofore; that General Warner has opened an office in that city, and the general opinion prevails that a lot of work will be done on the road this season. The Ohio Valley commences at Bellaire, and, as originally projected, would extend down the north bank of the Ohio river to Cincinnati.

Items For the Farmer.

In the past year the export of beef has increased from 82,000,000 pounds to 114-700,000 pounds.

Mr. James W. Fitzgerald's fine stations, Alcandre, McAlister, Tito and John L., will all be on exhibition next Monday at Wells & Biggars' livery stable on Market street. Breeders and farmers are invited to call and inspect them.
They will not be shown on the street.
These stallions will make the season of 1890 at Limestone Stock Farm.

Mason County tobacco buyers have been in Robertson the past week making purchases. Josh Rees bought Thomas Sparks, Jr.'s, crop at 11 cents around.
George W. Stiles purchased the crops of Jeff Robertson at 9 cents, W. H. Fookes' at 9½ cents and Jno. W. Neal's at 9½ cents.
Other purchases were made of which we failed to learn names and prices.—Mt.
Olivet Tribune-Democrat.

The weather and crop report says:
"Farming operations are very backward throughout the State. The moisture of the soil has rendered the working of it impracticable, and the frequency of rainy days has greatly retarded other out of door work. Farmers all over the State report the season to be from three weeks to a month behind. A period of warm, dry weather would, however, do much to forward all vegetation.

"Reports indicate that the wheat is not so seriously injured from the cold weather of March as it was at first supposed, and that in fact the prospects for the crop from the present outlook are quite promising. Grasses have also shown a decided improvement and are showing a decided development.

"The tobacco beds which have been sown are in a generally good condition, but the work of sowing was almost entirely suspended during the past week, owing to the wet weather."

At Home and Abroad.

Mr. James S. Sparks, of Washington,

A Fort Leavenworth Coterie Draws $5,000.

Twelve members of Company K., 13th Infantry, at the Fort, have just received, through the Pacific Express Company, $5,000, their portion of the $100,000 prize in the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. The money was paid to Sergeant Thomas Marriott and by him divided between the twelve who had pooled their issues. Each put in 50 cents and as luck would have it one of the six tickets purchased drew one one-twentieth of the $100,000 prize.—Leavenworth (Kan.)

Wm. Horan at Minerva week before last, was arrested a few days since at Ripley by Deputy Sheriff Perrine. He was and wounding with intent to kill. His trial was set for Thursday morning. He gave bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance, and was released.

Mr. Horan has continued to improve and will recover.

Barbarous Murder of a Disreputable Woman.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT REIGNS.

Suspicion Rests on a Chinaman With Whom She Was in Company, Which May Lead to a Solution of the White-chapel Crimes—Thirty Chinamen Under Arrest—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, April 9.—The barbarous murder of Helena Montana, a disreputable woman, at Hobersthat, near Aix La Chapelle, has created great excitement. The woman was killed in some mysterious manner in the open street, under the eyes of the passers-by.

The throat was cut from ear to ear. The body was disemboweled and otherwise mutilated after the fashion of Jack the Ripper.

The unfortunate woman was drinking with a Chinaman all the afternoon in a low den, and the pair parted apparently on friendly terms.

It is supposed that the Chinaman subsequently laid in wait for and murdered her.

When the body was found, at midnight, the blood lay in stagnant pools on the pavement all around it.

No outcries were heard by those living in the vicinity, and none of the neighbors could throw any light on the mystery.

The police arrested thirty laborers of the Chinese colony on suspicion of having been accessory to the murder.

Rioting in Vienna.

VIENNA, April 9.—An immense meeting of striking workmen was held here yesterday, which, towards its close, became turbulent. The police interfered and were attacked with stones. Before the mob could be dispersed they had pillaged a number of Jewish shops and set fire to a wine shop. They prevented the approach of the fire engines until the shops were destroyed. The troops were called out, and fired blank volleys at the mob, which was finally dispersed. A tavern was sacked by the rioters, who smashed all its windows and battered down its doors. They then hurled stones at passing vehicles. It required two squadrons of cavalry and a battalion of infantry to disperse the mob. Fourteen policemen were wounded and thirty-seven rioters were arrested.

A Boy Hanged.

LONDON, April 9.—The appeals made on behalf of Richard Davies, the 15-year-old boy who, together with his brother George, 16 years old, was sentenced to death for the murder of his father at Crowe, were unavailing, and yesterday the prisoner was hanged. The younger brother, as before announced, was last week granted a reprieve by the home secretary.

There is a storm of indignation against Home Secretary Matthews over his actions in this hanging. It is alleged that the appeal for clemency made to the queen elicited a telegram from her majesty commending a reprieve, which it is charged Mr. Matthews ignored. This statement has added to the excitement.

Affairs in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9.—The czar returns to the imperial palace at Gatchina on April 30. He has recovered from his recent illness.

The recent riots among the students of the technological institute has been investigated by a mixed commission made up of officials of the ministries of police and of public instruction. Twenty-eight of the students will be ordered to leave St. Petersburg. All other students who were arrested for participation in the riotous demonstrations have been set at liberty.

The Porte Partly Yields.

LONDON, April 9.—The Daily News correspondent at Athens says that England has strongly urged the porte to grant real amnesty to the Cretans and abolish martial law in Crete. The porte has partially consented to this, but insists that the Cretan refugees shall first return to their homes. Premier Tricoups declines to advise the return of fugitives.

France's Demands on England.

PARIS, April 9.—Le Siecle urges the government to hasten a renewal of its demands upon Great Britain for the evacuation of Egypt by her forces. The paper asserts that France never assented to the presence of British troops on the Nile, any more than she assented to the occupation of Alsace and Lorraine by the Germans.

Stanley's New Book.

LONDON, April 9.—The Sampson Low Company, publishers of Stanley's new book, "Darkest Africa," will issue 5,000,000 copies of the work. The book will be printed in fifteen languages.

A Big Labor Demonstration.

BARCELONA, April 9.—Seventy thousand workmen will be in attendance at the labor demonstration, which is to be held here in May, and it is probable that a general strike will follow.

Dr. Kopp to Be a Cardinal.

ROME, April 9.—It is stated that the pope intends to elevate Dr. Kopp, bishop of Breslau, to the cardinalate, in recognition of his services in the recent labor conference at Berlin.

A BOX FULL OF CORPSES.

Bodies of Sixteen Young Women, One Man and a Negress Reached Mazagan.

MADRID, April 9.—A horrible story comes from Morocco. A large box was recently brought from the interior to the port of Mazagan for shipment. When opened a ghastly sight was revealed. In the box, packed closely together, were the bodies of sixteen young women, one man and a negress.

All the victims had been decapitated and their heads were missing. Their bodies were embalmed, and had evidently been in the condition in which they were found for a long time. The slaughter had been, to all appearance, the work of some pasha, who thus visited vengeance on his harem for unfaithfulness.

ANOTHER EAST RIVER BRIDGE.

To Be Larger Than the Present One and Accommodate Railroads.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The bridge bill introduced in the legislature by Assemblyman George Greitsinger, of Brooklyn, and now on the order of third reading in the assembly, reveals a scheme of vast proportions. The bill provides for the raising of $40,000,000 for the construction of the bridge and its approaches.

This sum is $30,000,000 in excess of that provided for in Senator McCarren's bill which met its death recently in the senate. The amount named in Senator McCarren's bill was thought sufficient to erect a suspension bridge similar to the present structure. It is rumored in various circles that the purpose of the bill behind the Greitsinger scheme is to secure the right to erect the structure and then dispose of it to capitalists. The magnitude of the enterprise, however, makes these rumors unworthy of credence.

It would be less difficult to dispose of a franchise calling for an expenditure of $10,000,000 than for one in which $40,000,000 is the amount named. Investigation proves that there is something more than a suspension bridge for the accommodation of New Yorkers and Brooklynites behind the project. It is said that the effect of the passage of the measure would be to establish a direct railroad communication between Brooklyn and the west end of Brooklyn independent of New York for its commercial prosperity.

A structure higher, heavier and stronger than the present bridge and embracing some of the principles of the cantilever bridge is provided for. It is so designed that up to a certain point the structure would become firmer as the strain increased, and this adapts it for bearing the weight of heavy passenger and freight trains drawn by locomotives of ninety tons. It is proposed, it is said, to continue the tracks from the New York terminus of the bridge to the Grand Central depot, thus securing connection with the New York Central, the Harlem and the New Haven roads.

GAVE IT TO THE PUBLIC.

The Editor of The Knoxville Sentinel Receives a Challenge for a Duel.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 9.—Col. John M. Fleming, editor of The Knoxville Daily Sentinel, has received a challenge from James Phelan, owner of The Memphis Daily Avalanche, and representative in congress from the Tenth district of Tennessee. Editor Fleming has refused to accept the challenge, and exactly what further steps, if any, Congressman Phelan may take, are not known. Editor Fleming, instead of sending his acknowledgment of the receipt of the communication by wire, by which agency it was transmitted to him, yesterday published it in The Sentinel, and it is now the principal theme of conversation.

Mr. Phelan's challenge came by telegraph from Washington last Sunday. Editor Fleming in his reply says that in times past the men who have specially commanded his admiration were those who had the courage to treat with contempt the demand of the duelist, while recognizing and insisting on the manly right of self-defense. The trouble between the two men was occasioned by a book Mr. Phelan wrote, a school history of Tennessee, which was commented upon in strong language by Editor Fleming in The Sentinel.

LABOR TROUBLES.

The Chicago Strikers Still Out But Arbitration Possible—Other Labor News.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The plumbers' strike is still on, as all the difficulties between the two sets of belligerents have not yet been adjusted. At last night's conference the master plumbers agreed to pay a minimum of $3.50 a day for all journeymen, and an increase of 25 per cent. for the juniors. The journeymen plumbers are satisfied with this advance, although it was by no means what they had demanded. The juniors, however, who struck to aid the journeymen, are not satisfied with a 25 per cent. increase, and that is the hitch between the two arbitration committees.

The carpenters' strike is still on, although the men will probably appoint an arbitration committee to confer with the master carpenters. The strikers say that not more than twenty men are at work within the city limits of Chicago. They feel much encouraged.

Miners Combining.

TYRONE, Pa., April 9.—Three thousand miners in the Hontzdale district held a mass meeting yesterday and agreed to join the United Miners' association in a body. They assessed themselves two cents per ton per month a man, for the purpose of creating a National defense fund, maintaining one National organization.

At Phillipsburg yesterday afternoon 2,500 met in mass meeting and took the same action. The per capita tax collected from the miners will amount to $125,000 annually.

The first action of the new organization will be the introduction of a uniform wage scale for dead work, which, if adopted, means a material increase in the cost of coal to many operators.

A Difference in Pay.

QUINCY, Mass., April 9.—The granite cutters have demanded nine hours at thirty-one cents an hour. The Granite Manufacturers' association will concede the nine hours, but decline to pay more than twenty-eight cents. The workmen will maintain their petition.

Nine Hours by Agreement.

LOWELL, Mass., April 9.—The carpenters, plasterers, stonemasons, brick-masons, plumbers, gas and steam-pipe men are now working nine hours in agreement with the Master Builders' association.

It is pretty well understood that the new penitentiary board will appoint Ben Dyer warden.

The United States senate yesterday passed Mr. Sherman's anti-trust bill, there being but one vote in the negative.

A bill has been introduced in the Kentucky legislature to close Covington saloons from midnight until 4 o'clock.

The proposed Chinese enumeration law is denounced by the New York chamber of commerce as an insult to China.
